

NO OPPOSITION FOR JUDGE HARDIN

From Democrats and Republicans May Not Make Nomination Against Him—Declares For Woman Suffrage.

No other candidate having announced against him by May 21st, the date fixed by the District Committee, Judge Charles A. Hardin, of Mercer county, will formally be declared the Democratic nominee for Congress in the Eighth district when the sub-committee meets at Nicholasville, June 5. Although Attorney King Swope, of Lexington, who claims Boyle as his home, has been endorsed for the republican nomination, it is said to be extremely doubtful if he becomes a candidate. The Eighth district is normally about 3,000 democratic and with all united behind Judge Hardin, Swope would have a very slim chance of success.

The Kentucky Equal Suffrage Association has just given publicity to a strong letter written by Judge Hardin in which he declares himself in favor of equal suffrage and the amendment now pending in Congress. Judge Hardin wrote:

"In answering your inquiry as to my position on the Federal Suffrage Amendment, would say:

"The women of America have proven equal to every test of citizenship in the most trying times of the world's life. Their achievements at home and abroad compel admiration and respect.

"We delight to honor our brave men here and in other lands, for the Victory of Liberty, Equality of Opportunity and Justice. Why not the women, who shared equally the hardships and burdens of the struggle? In declaring for equality of opportunity, justice and for liberty, it would hardly be consistent to deny the women of our country the things we would obtain for others.

"They have passed through the testing days of the War, and they stand majestically erect and triumphant. Thoughtful men everywhere ponder in their hearts their contribution in the liberation of the world. They have worn the khaki of the army and navy; they have endured the hardships at home, in the cantonments, in foreign lands; in the front line trenches upon the Battle Fields; they have faced, unflinchingly, the dangers of the seas, when threatened by the murderous and consciousness submarines. They have labored in the field, in the munition factories, in all departments of industry and labor. They have ministered unflinching fidelity and tender compassion, to the sick and wounded. They have been, and are, leaders in organized work everywhere, making possible the success of the Y. M. C. A., Red Cross, Salvation Army, Knights of Columbus and other like organizations. They have rendered invaluable aid in the solving of financial and industrial problems which have confronted us. Her voice and activities are needed now in meeting political and economic questions, which are ahead of us, to secure which their enfranchisement.

"It is with sincere conviction of the correctness of my position, my dear Madam, that I announce to you, that if I should be so fortunate as to represent my district in Congress, I will support, if the opportunity is afforded me, the Federal Suffrage Amendment, mindful of the justice involved, and in gratitude for the unstinted, courage and high-minded service of the women of our country in winning the war.

Respectfully,
"CHAS. A. HARDIN."

WILL SHANKS TO OPPOSE OLDHAM

Much interest was occasioned in political circles by news received from Stanford last night that Hon. William H. Shanks, of that city, had formally announced his candidacy for the Democratic nomination for Lieutenant Governor. Mr. Shanks is very well known here in Richmond, having married a Richmond girl, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Baldwin. He is president of the Lincoln County National Bank, and a prominent farmer. He served three terms in the legislature as a member from Lincoln county, and has taken a leading part in politics for many years. He is very popular and a splendid gentleman in every way.

Up to his entry into the race, it was thought by many that Col. Ronald C. Oldham, of Winchester and a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Oldham, of this city, would have no opposition for the nomination for this office. Col. Oldham has been making a vigorous campaign, and his friends were confident he would be unopposed. However with an opponent of the calibre of Will Shanks, against him, the race will undoubtedly assume interesting proportions at once, for notwithstanding the fact that Col. Oldham has already perfected an organization of state-wide dimensions, Mr. Shanks is widely known and popular and undoubtedly has assurances of strong support to induce him to enter the field. No where will the race be watched with greater interest than right here in Richmond, the former home of Col. Oldham, and which may also be said to be the "home-in-law" of Mr. Shanks.

CYCLONE PROBABLY GOT HAWKER

London, May 24.—As bearing upon the possible fate of Harry G. Hawker and Lieutenant Commander Grieve, who have not been heard from since they started from Newfoundland in an attempted trans-Atlantic flight last Sunday, steamers arriving at Liverpool report exceptionally severe wind storms in the Atlantic Sunday night and Monday. One ship captain reports a cyclone in which he said no airplane could have lived.

AWAITING DATE OF ROSEDALE SALE

Members of the Wakefield-Davis Realty Company, who will hold the big sale of building lots at the Rosedale Addition, formerly the Caperton home, at an early date, concluded arrangements for the purchase of a beautiful building addition in Paris this week. At the conclusion of the sale here, they will go to Paris to sell it.

Much interest is being aroused in the plans for converting Rosedale into an attractive residential suburb of Richmond. Landscape artists have been at work for a couple of weeks and the addition is being divided into lots, attractively arranged and offering the most desirable sites for home building. No more beautiful building sites could be found anywhere. All who pass that way are attracted to them and their desirability impresses itself upon one without suggestion. Richmond is building that way and at no time in a decade has such an opportunity been offered to obtain a home site of this sort.

The date of the sale of these lots is being eagerly awaited and present indications are that there will be a decided demand for them.

HUNS BACK SMILING

Versailles, May 24.—Count Von Brockdorf-Rantzau and other members of the German peace delegation who went to Spa on Thursday returned here this morning, with the exception of their financial expert. All members of the party were smiling and seemed to be in good spirits.

It had been announced from Berlin that framing Germany's counter-proposal to the Allied peace terms was to be considered at the Spa conference, and it seems probable that the final form of these proposals has been decided upon. Germany must present her proposals within the week's extension of time for replying recently granted her, which expires next Thursday.

At the same time there will be laid before the Allied representatives the treaty with Austria, whose army, second only to Germany's, is understood to be reduced to 15,000 men, her implements of war destroyed and further manufacture of munitions forbidden.

BRILLIANT CLOSE TO MUSIC FESTIVAL

Music Lovers Crowd Normal Auditorium To Hear "The Crusaders" Magnificently Rendered.

The closing concert of the third annual Music Festival of the Eastern Kentucky State Normal was one of the most brilliant entertainments ever enjoyed by Richmond's music loving people. The material which inspired Neils Gade, the gifted and accomplished Dane, to compose such a marvelous musical setting, was based upon historical facts of the early Crusades and furnished an almost equal display of the solo voices and chorus work.

In the first scene was heard with good effect the part of Peter the Hermit, sung by Mr. Earl Weatherford, a baritone of unusual range, taking the high tones with a clearness and ease that always bespeaks the artist, and at no time was the audience more impressed with the majesty of the music than in the prayer of the Hermit which was taken up by the orchestra and chorus in a most earnest appeal for divine guidance on their way toward Jerusalem. In this introductory part also Mr. Vaughn was heard as Rinaldo and in every particular equalled the expectation of those who heard him Thursday evening, displaying again his pleasing enunciation and marvelous histrionic ability in his interpretation of the text.

In the second division, Miss Alice Metcalfe charmed her audience as never before, not only with beauty of voice and skill of execution, but with an ability to invest the Queen of the spirits with a realism that was startling and suggested an operatic career for this gifted young singer.

Too much cannot be said of the excellent orchestral and chorus work, and the male voices rose to the occasion, making up in quality and style what might have been lacking in numbers.

And again it must be said that the piano accompanist, Miss Brown E. Telford, took a part second to none in making of this occasion a brilliant success.

Children's Concert

One of the most important features of the May Festival to many friends and relatives was the children's concert Friday afternoon. These embryonic musicians are always a joy to those interested in child-life and its development. The little soloists Jessie Burnam, Florence Hamilton and Leon Fife in their parts did themselves and Dr. Myers great credit. Mardie Coates, Mary Pickett Breck and Marjorie Million gave the Swing Song with good effects as did also Annfield Shackelford, Margaret Greenleaf and Nellie Cornelison, in the final number. The chorus work, too, of the little folk showed careful training, as well as considerable musical ability. The cantata "The Walrus and the Carpenter" was given by the fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth grades and included the girls who are to be the leaders of the art in a future Richmond. Dr. Myers evidently appreciated and recognized the ability of these young people in assigning their parts. The Festival throughout has been worthy of the conductor, those who have assisted, and the large audiences which were present at each performance. So here's to Dr. Myers, hearty congratulations, and a deep appreciation of the musical public. And may we enjoy many such seasons of refreshing under his able direction.

The Normal auditorium was unable to accommodate the splendid audience last evening, many being turned away, unable to secure seats or standing room.

MORE DEMOBILIZATION PLANS

Washington, May 24.—Gen. March today announced revised plans for return of the overseas forces which provide for the sailing from France of all troops except those in the regular divisions by June 12th. He also announced that demobilization has returned more than 60 per cent of the officers and men to civil life. The total to date is given as 2,215,161.

DIRECT FROM THE BATTLE FIELDS OF FRANCE

Uncle Sam's Yankee Minstrels which came to Richmond Saturday, May 24th, is composed of veterans of Pershing's army, some of them wounded so badly that they will never again be able to take up their vocation. Notwithstanding the fact that these boys have gone through the tortures of hell for us, they still have the ability to entertain, and the minstrel show that they present compares favorably with the best. Probably the most interesting soldier in the troupe is Sergt. Ritchie who is a veteran of veterans, having seen over 15 years of active service, and has taken part in every skirmish that the U. S. has had, in his time. Twice he has been called to Mexico. In 1901 he was seriously wounded in the Boxer Revolution in China, and only last year he was three times wounded, once gassed, and was captured by the Germans only to escape 24 hours later. He is

FAREWELL PARTIES TO JOHN BARLEYCORN

Are Being Given in Ohio Today As Prohibition Becomes Effective in Buckeye State On Monday.

(By Associated Press)

Columbus, Ohio May 24.—The first of a double celebration marking the passing of liquor traffic in Ohio started here today and at midnight the state will virtually become prohibition territory under an amendment to the constitution adopted by the voters last autumn.

While midnight next Monday is specified in the new law as the time for the closing, the license year ends today comparatively few saloonkeepers paid the $300 necessary to re-open the final celebration on Monday.

Big farewell parties to John Barleycorn were to be held tonight in nearly every wet municipality in Ohio, the biggest state in the country to have voted prohibition. The authorities did not anticipate trouble in any community as a result of the expected hilarity.

For several weeks some communities have been preparing for the advent of prohibition and the number of licensed drinking places, which totaled 5,600 a few months ago, has been considerably reduced.

Saloonkeepers report that for several weeks stocks of wines and whiskeys have rapidly disappeared. Virtually all the finer wines and liquors have been disposed of. Despite the unusually high prices that have prevailed, the dealers say thousands of dollars worth of liquor has been stored in private warehouses and cellars for private consumption.

Scores of saloons that closed today will re-open shortly as lunchrooms and refreshment stands. Several breweries will reopen as ice manufacturing plants.

Ohio will enter the list of dry states without the usual prohibition enforcement machinery. For the present the prohibition laws will be enforced by state officials.

Prohibition leaders attempt to pass Emergency legislation through the Ohio legislature this winter but failed. A law enforcing bill was passed, but minus an emergency clause, and the "wets" have announced they will call a referendum upon it before it can become effective.

The state will lose revenue amounting approximately $4,000,000 annually as the result of prohibition. Bills providing for new revenue-raising acts are pending before the Ohio general assembly.

$10,000 RACE RUN AT LOUISVILLE TODAY

(By Associated Press)

Louisville, Ky., May 24.—The Kentucky handicap, with $10,000 added, to be run today at Churchill Downs, will feature the greatest horse race of the older division of horses, according to turf critics. The leading performers of the East and West are expected to meet in this quarter contest for 3-year-olds and upward.

Much interest was added through the announcement that Royce Roofs, winner of the King's County handicap at Jamaica last Saturday, would go to the post. With only 115 pounds up, many believe he will be at the top of his form. Trainer Bedwell planned to send Jockey Johnny Loftus here to ride the big horse. He piloted Sir Barton to victory in the Kentucky Derby and the Preakness.

Extraneous, Willis Sharp Kilmer's candidacy is favored by many Western horsemen. He will have up 124 pounds. His defeat here last week is not taken seriously.

The Porter, in the stable of E. H. McLean, is receiving much consideration. He is allotted 123 pounds. He worked a mile between races at Churchill Downs recently in 1:38 2-b. Rancher in the stable of Geo. A. Hendie string, with 115 pounds and Pif, Jr., R. L. Baker's gelding, with 117 pounds, have trained well for the stake, and the distance is to their fancy.

Midway by winning the Clark handicap with ease, looms up formidably. He beat the best horses in the country on more than one occasion last year, and apparently has regained the same form. The J. W. Parrish horse will carry 122 pounds.

Freemutter, owned by George J. Long and carrying 123 pounds, is regarded to be in at an especial weight. The son of Free Lance apparently is a greatly improved horse. Recent performances indicate that he possesses plenty of speed and runs as though the handicap route will suit him. Others consider sure starters are Miller Henderson's Beaverville, G. A. Marshall's Courtship, and C. T. Worthington's Viva America.
